PC:

This application has been filed by the employee under section 17B of the Industrial Dispute Act making claim for wages. The respondent-employee has filed the present application duly sworn stating therein that the workman is not gainfully employed. Award passed in favour of the applicant has been stayed. In this view of the matter I direct the respondent in this civil application to pay last drawn wages to the applicant (Original respondent) from the date of filing of writ petition and shall continue to pay the same during pendency of this writ petition. Arrears shall be paid within a period of eight weeks from today.
